

Southeastern Ohio Hay Day and New Building Dedication June 21, 2008

8:30 a.m.-3:00 p.m.

At the Eastern Agricultural Research Station
Located near Belle Valley, Ohio

The program is FREE and open to the public.

Registration begins at 8:30 a.m.
Refreshments available.

Exhibitors: Hay and Forage equipment manufacturers, local equipment dealers, local SWCD's and OSU Extension

Plan now to attend!!!
For more information call 740-732-2682

Directions: Take exit 28 off I-77, turn south on SR 821, go east (left) on SR 215, proceed approximately 1 mile. Turn right onto Band Ridge (township road), signs will be posted.

Pre-registration is encouraged to have an approximate number for our meal count.
Please Call 740-732-2682 or 740-732-5681

Agenda for the Day

- 8:30 Registration & Refreshments
- 9:00 Mower demonstrations
- 10:00 Tedding demonstrations and Educational discussion of proper timing for tedding hay
- 11:00 Dedication ceremony
- 12:00 Lunch (will be provided*)
Self guided touring of the facility
- 1:00 Raking, Baling and Wrapping demonstrations
- 3:00 Conclude

Why You Should Attend

The 2008 Southeastern Ohio Hay Day offers producers field demonstrations to see hay harvesting equipment working in the field.

Dealers exhibit a variety of equipment that day.

Educational information related to forage production will be presented.

You can see—first hand—the latest equipment and results of each unit's work during demonstrations.