Other Ways 4-H Week is Celebrated

“Reading Makes the Best Better” Program

OSUE Staff & teen volunteers will visit all the schools in Guernsey County to share about their 4-H experiences and share the importance of reading by reading stories to each Kindergarten class and giving each child a free Scholastic book to take home and information on how to join Cloverbuds.

“Reading and Still Making the Best Better” Program

Each third grader in the county receives a free copy of Charlotte's Web and information on how to join 4-H. Each teacher receives suggestions on how they can use this book with their students as a class and meet some education standards.

Radio - AVC Communications

Listen for our 4-H Professionals, members, and/or volunteers as they share about their 4-H experiences during interviews on WCMJ 96FM and/or WWKC-FM “KC105” each morning. You can also listen all week long for PSA's (Public Service Announcements) from Guernsey County 4-H as we promote Guernsey County 4-H Week!

Guernsey County Commissioner's Proclamation

The Guernsey County Commissioners sign a proclamation which proclaims March 1st -7th as 4-H Week in Guernsey County. Thank you to our county commissioners for the continued support of the Guernsey County 4-H Program.

Guernsey County Courthouse

The courthouse will be lit up in GREEN for 4-H Week! Thank you to AVC Communications for making this possible each year!

4-H Yard Signs

Thank you to the businesses and residents around Guernsey County who give us the opportunity to promote 4-H in their business window or yard!
